5  3  2

Elevated and wide water views of the Tweed River cast a relaxed ambience over this versatile Fingal Head retreat that rises two levels from a tightly held boutique address in the secret seaside village.

Nestled amid a private tropical setting fronted by the stunning river and hinterland outlook, the modern two-storey entertainer comprises two separate living spaces, five bedrooms and two modern bathrooms.

A raked ceiling, exposed brick and timber floors define the generous open-plan lifestyle space on the top floor comprising the family room, dining area and white kitchen with stone bench tops a breakfast bar.

Interiors flow seamlessly to multiple view-enriched alfresco spaces including an expansive deck, spacious undercover
