They often say the most important feature to consider when buying real estate is location, location, location, and this wonderfully desirable canvas is conveniently situated a mere 2 blocks north of the Kingscliff beachfront alfresco strip.

Opportunities include redeveloping a boutique and exclusive set of apartments, building a luxury beach home of serious magnitude, or just simply land banking with the existing home.

With an area of circa 550m² and a frontage of approximately 20.5m both front and back this flat block provides flexibility to potentially embrace both residential and commercial redevelopment options which are subject to TSC approval.

Price : $ 2,125,000
