This substantial two-level residence presents a versatile configuration allowing for multiple living arrangements and flexible income options.

It occupies a generous 612m2 block in a quiet beachfront cul-de-sac in Casuarina's most northern segment, allowing for ease of travel to Salt's renowned alfresco strip and Casuarina Village.

Design elements embrace the essence of beachside living from high ceilings to banks of sliding glass that facilitate a seamless flow from the interior to several outdoor entertaining spaces.

The ground floor features a large, tiled multipurpose space with a kitchenette and wet bar which can be utilised as an entertainment space, games room or second living area. It
