Designed to impart a sense of space, light and relaxed living is this immaculate single-level residence in a sought-after beachside address edging the resort amenities of Salt Village.

Modern interiors are illustrated via a foundation colour palette of timeless, adaptable and neutral hues from soaring white walls and ecru floor tiles to stone surfaces in hazelnut undertones.

Full width, sheer linen curtains dress glass expanses in the family room which is perfectly placed to embrace a cosy, comfortable ambience while still interacting with the open floor plan.

Clerestory windows cast natural light across the open dining area and kitchen appointed streamline joinery, stone
